Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. And the only way to do great work is to love what you do. Hotel industry is one such industry where passion outshines every other attribute for a worker. The fact that the core competence of this industry lies in the interaction and guest communication makes it apt for people who are passionate and do not just want to do a regular desk job. There are always avenues to explore with almost every hotel requiring great staff. Apprenticeships are very common. Even though the time lines are short and stress is high but the fervour to deliver the best is impeccable in hoteliers. Be patient and always keep your ear to the ground. Moreover, balance hard work with smart work.

I wish you all a very bright, happy and an eventful career ahead!!
